

FRONTIERS OR INTERACTION ZONES?

BORDERLANDS AS AREAS OF COMMUNICATION AND MOBILITY

28.2. – 02.03.2019

INSTITUTE OF ARCHAEOLOGICAL SCIENCES
UNIVERSITY BERN

LATÉNIUM
PARC ET MUSÉE D'ARCHÉOLOGIE DE NEUCHÂTEL

Laténium / Neuchâtel – Warm-up

Welcome and Introduction

Albert Hafner University of Bern | Switzerland

Hans Peter Hahn University of Frankfurt | Germany

Intercultural exchange and inequality. Some notes on conceptual approaches to cultural transfers

Heinzpeter Znoj University of Bern | Switzerland

Exchange and trade in societies without state and market – insights from economic anthropology

SESSION I: THEORY

Caroline Heitz, Martin Hinz University of Bern | Switzerland

Pottery beyond Cultures – A praxeological Approach to Mobility, Entanglements and Transformations in Prehistoric Societies

Ariane Ballmer University of Bern | Switzerland

Wayfinding Within and Across Spatial Boundaries: Issues, Resources, and Proposals

Marcin Przybyła Jagiellonian University | Poland

The 2nd millennium in the Western Carpathians – between adaptation and unique historical process

SESSION II: ALPS

Franco Marzatico Soprintendenza per i beni culturali, Trento | Italia

Nord and south of the eastern central Alps: contact, exchanges and relations

Caroline Posch University of Innsbruck | Austria

North and South. Cross regional influences in the lithic industries of the Mesolithic sites in the Kleinwalsertal (Vorarlberg, Austria)

Margarethe Kirchmayr University of Innsbruck | Austria

Archaeology on the border between the Alps and the Alpine foothills. The district of Reutte (Tyrol/Austria) – A borderland from Prehistory to today

Joachim Neumaier Bezirksmuseum Buchen | Germany

Transalpine contacts in the light of the gravegoods from a Late Bronze Age burial at Geroldshausen (Lower Franconia, Bavaria, Germany)

SESSION III: MEDITERRANEAN

Sergios Menelaou Koç University | Turkey

A seascape of change: concepts of maritime connectivity within the east Aegean islands and west Anatolian borderland during the third millennium BC

Emma Buckingham The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill | United States

Permeability and mutability in indigenous Sicilian borderlands

Laura Burkhardt Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna | Austria

A goldmine on the fringe of the Mediterranean world – the Ada Tepe mine and its cultural interrelations in the Late Bronze Age

SESSION IV: ANCIENT WORLD

Veronika Egenteinmeyr University of Greifswald | Germany

Late Antique Gaul – Borderland of Romanitas?

Kai Radloff Berlin Graduate School of Ancient Studies (BerGSAS) | Germany

1 + 1 = 2? The transition of the landscape along the Lower Rhine into a part of the Frontiers of the Roman Empire

SESSION V: NETWORKS

Eleonore Pape University of Göttingen | Germany

From diffusion to transculturality – The case study of the Late Neolithic collective gallery graves of western Germany and the Paris Basin

Akbar Abedi Tabriz Islamic Art University | Iran

The Araxes River in Late Prehistory: Bridge or Border? North-Western Iran and Southern Caucasus Interaction during 6th to 3rd Millennia B.C.

Mumtaz Yattoo University of Kashmir | India

Interaction Zones of the Northern Neolithic People of Kashmir

fiz2019.net

CONTACT:

Mirco Brunner mirco.brunner@iaw.unibe.ch
INSTITUTE OF ARCHAEOLOGICAL SCIENCES - DEPARTMENT OF PREHISTORY, UNIVERSITY OF BERN

Julia Menne jmenne@gsmdl.uni-kiel.de
INSTITUTE OF PRE- AND PROTOHISTORIC ARCHAEOLOGY, UNIVERSITY OF KIEL